Who can give consent? If a child's parents are married, either parent can give consent. However, the father can give consent if the parents then marry each other, or if the father has a parental responsibility order or agreement.

Parental consent Either parent with parental responsibility can give consent. If someone acting as a guardian gives consent, they should send a letter explaining the circumstances. It should be supported by a letter from the head teacher or someone similar who is aware of the facts, confirming the circumstances.

Child's change of name If the child's name has changed since birth, the parent or guardian signing needs to confirm that everyone with parental responsibility is aware of and agrees to the change of name.

Children in care In all cases, we need a letter from the social services department. The letter must say what section of the Children's Act the child is in care under.
